

Choose your answers

- blind
- caves
- chiroptera
- colony
- echolocation
- endangered
- fox
- insects
- insectivorous
- mammal
- nocturnal
- one
- pollinate
- pup
- sonar
- thousand

Across

1. An animal that is active at night is called _____.
2. All bats can see; no bats are _____.
3. The scientific name for bats, which means hand-wing, is _____.
4. A kind of bat whose face looks like a dog is a flying _____.
5. A bat that feeds on insects is called _____.
6. Most mother bats produce only _____ (how many) baby a year.
7. Many bats spend part of the year living in _____.
8. Echolocation used by bats is a kind of _____.

Down

1. The process of navigating and locating food using sound is called _____.
2. A bat is a _____.
3. Nectar bats _____ flowers, just like hummingbirds.
4. An animal that is disappearing is said to be _____.
5. There are more than a _____ (how many) kinds of bats.
6. A baby bat is called a _____.
7. About 70% of all bats eat _____.
8. A group of bats living together is called a _____.

